Senior Career Coach

“Getting Ahead Begins with Mental Fitness and Self Awareness”

Kim considers herself a life learner with over 20+ years combined experience in human resources management, business and executive coaching, career coaching and outplacement, which includes career transition, job search strategy, career discover, resume writing, interview preparation, networking, and negotiation. She has helped hundreds of professionals in career transition identify their professional values, strengths, increase self-awareness and clarify capabilities, where working together they have developed career strategies to move forward.

Key Areas of Career Expertise & Accomplishments

Kim has worked within a variety of diverse environments. She’s coached executives, military officers, mid-level management, and professionals within various industries ranging from non-profit, government, entertainment, financial services, telecommunication, hospitality, insurance, education, legal, healthcare, real estate, retail, manufacturing, and distribution.

As a Senior Career Coach with Bravanti, Kim helps candidates gain clarity on how to job search, outline a career transition plan, then go into action prepared, empowered and confident.

She’s coached candidates from shifting perspective to following their desired work situation, for example, helped create steps on letting go of “working for” a well-known and respected organization to gaining a stronger leadership role and autonomy “working for” an unknown growing start-up business in a different industry ... or supported a candidate deciding on two different career paths to find they could combine both paths creating a flexible work situation.

Education & Credentials

Kim received her Bachelor’s Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Strategic Planning from the University of Denver. She is a Board-Certified Coach, Professional Certified Coach, certified as a Career Development Coach Specialist, Certified Government Coach., Certified Emotional intelligence Practitioner, and Positive Intelligence Practitioner.

Coaching Philosophy

She believes in working from the inside out, and every candidate within themselves is resourceful, whole, and creative. They have the answers within them to move forward.
