

Talent Insights - July 2022

The latest on high-impact, high-quality coaching, leadership acceleration, and outplacement/career transition

A Message from our President & CEO

Greetings!

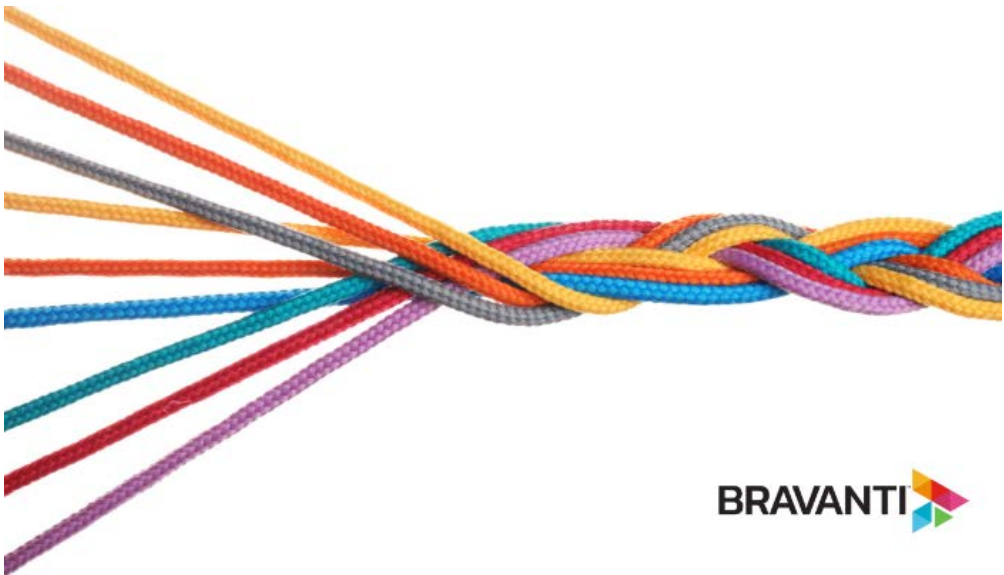

What are some of your challenges as a leader? I hear from leaders every day about the complexities of today's workplace and the positive steps they are taking to weather uncertainty. Leveraging or spreading that leadership more broadly helps lighten your load and yet allows you to drive the impact you desire. Creating a coaching culture and ensuring trust among teams are top priorities, as well as development of your leadership pipelines.

You'll find great content on these topics and more in this edition of Talent Insights. Don't miss the opportunity to pre-order our new book, learn more about next-step career planning for senior executives, and how talent mobility is one important step in helping retention. Enjoy!

Igniting bold futures,

The Trust Factor

with Michelle Sugarman

VIDEO: Journeys in Leadership, Episode 16: The Trust Factor

With Executive Coach Michelle Sugarman

These days, office politics are a common facet of professional life. But just because it's common doesn't mean it's healthy, and in fact, can often be distracting and harmful to team dynamics and performance.

In Episode 16 of the Journeys in Leadership series, Bravanti Executive Coach Michelle Sugarman shares how trust helped to eliminate traditional office politics in the C-suite of a $1B company, giving way to a culture of psychological safety, transparency, healthier relationships, and improved mental health of executives. So how did this executive team achieve the seemingly impossible of eliminating office politics? Watch to find out!
