

Angie Auvil

Vice President,
Business Development

“I am very passionate about strategically partnering with leaders, teams, and organizations to solve their business challenges, accelerate growth and achieve success.”

Angie Auvil is Vice President of Business Development and helps drive Bravanti’s strategic growth plans. She is focused on new market development, global account management, and strategically partnering with clients of all sizes and across all industries on executive coaching, leadership acceleration, and outplacement solutions.

Angie is a sales executive with 20+ years in human capital expertise. She has deep knowledge in business change/transformation, organizational effectiveness, change management, culture alignment, talent management/effectiveness, leadership development/acceleration, team building, executive transition, and executive coaching. Angie also has experience working with internal/external partners, CHROs, C-suite leaders in Fortune 500 companies, high-growth privately held organizations, and private equity businesses.

Prior to working at Bravanti, Angie was a business owner and strategic field leader for Beautycounter, focused on recruiting, developing, and managing top talent. Her work included development of annual business, sales, and marketing plans and strategy implementation with a team of 615 people. She also worked in client relationship and solutions roles at BPI group and Capital H Group for 13 years. She began her career at PDI.

Angie earned her B.A. in Psychology, Business, and Spanish from Indiana University, as well as a masters in Psychology from Roosevelt University.

